

Faye,

14-1-04

I am told there are still some things in my house that you want to come and get.

But first I want my Marriage Certificate of 55 years, which I have kept in mint condition all these years and you have taken from me. Also I want Harry's and my full Birth Certificates which you have taken and also both our Passports.

I wasn't able to get Harry's Death Certificate through the Annular Parlour because you had taken them.

I also want the German Letters which were passed down to Harry when his mother died. The originals, not a photostat copy!!

Also the horse ownership papers for Ellie - Bunyip Belle which you repeatedly took and gave to Bruce. I want them back.

Also 30 plus of my keepsake mugs that I wanted for Harry's Wake.

I also want my silver coin and banknote collection which I had saved over the years. I want them all back too.

Truly,

Wesley
